PEALE COLLIER.

—Mrs. W. V. Shaw left Tuesday for a few days visit to Mrs. Robert Frank, of Paris, from thence to the home of her mother, Mrs. Harding of Butler, where she will remain until the return of Mr. Shaw.

—The election passed off quietly Tuesday, a fairly good vote was polled, all the interest here centered in the Magisterial race and were it not for this a very light vote would have been polled. Both sides were out bright and early Tuesday morning and an active campaign was kept up all day. Esquire E. P. Thomason Democratic candidate was re-elected by sixty-four majority in the two joint precincts.

—Mr. W. E. Butler left Wednesday for a ten days' visit to relatives at Nicholasville.

—Mrs. M. R. Collier is confined to her bed at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. G. McClintock at Paris.

—Mr. Wm. Letton, of Atlanta, Ga., spent from Monday till Wednesday with his mother, Mrs. Jennie Letton.

—Mrs. J. Q. Hook, of Boise City, Idaho, and Mr. Stephen Hook, of Augusta, arrived Thursday as guests of nieces and sister, Mrs. J. A. Butler.

—All ladies interested in school work are invited to meet this afternoon at three o'clock at the public school building with the School Improvement League. Each person will be asked to contribute a book to open a library.

—Miss Bertha DeWitt, of Steele's Ford and Prof. Miracle Oakland, of Hickman county, were married Tuesday evening at seven o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.

John Dewitt. Miss Dewitt is a charming talented young lady. For the past two years she has been teaching in Nicholas county. Prof. Oakland is a talented young man formerly from Richmond, and is in charge of the graded school at Oakland. Two years ago this young couple met while both were students at the Normal school of Richmond. They saw, they met, they loved, and Cupid did the rest. They enter on their new voyage of life with the best wishes of a host of friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Luck, of the Baptist church.

—The Morris Stock Company, which opened a week's engagement at the opera house has been playing to good houses. The company on the whole is good and all lovers of the drama should take advantage of the opportunity of seeing it this week. It is not often that we are so fortunately blessed.

—The protracted meeting which began Tuesday night at the Methodist church has been well attended. Rev. T. W. Watts, the pastor in charge has been conducting it. He will be assisted, beginning with tonight, by Rev. Cran, a returned missionary from China and Japan, who is said to be a forcible speaker.

—The first number of the Lyceum Course, the Lyric Glee Club Thursday evening Nov. 18 at opera house, p. m. Further particulars later. The season tickets are coupon tickets containing each of the five numbers and dates, you must not lose or destroy them, you must bring them each time that the doorkeeper may take off the number to be extended. Bear this in mind.
R. M. CALDWELL, Manager.

—M. F. C. observed Hallowe'en Saturday night. The spacious chapel was beautifully decorated with products typical of the occasion, leaves, flowers, etc. In each corner of the room were bundles of fodder tied with the college colors. There were apples bobbing from the ceiling and apples with initials in large tubs of water to be fished out by blindfolded persons who wished to know her fortune. A beautiful grove was arranged in the hall in which two gypsies told fortunes of the anxious ones. The lunch consisted of ginger cakes, nuts, pop corn, apples and other fruits. There were no invited guests. The receiving line was composed of the members of Y. W. C. A. in masque.

—The venerable John Jones, a highly respected colored man, aged 79, who was operated on in a Cincinnati hospital last Saturday for cancer of the bladder died Wednesday morning. For many years he has operated a small repair shop here doing the greater part of all the work in that line. He was one of the local preachers of the colored Methodist church and was well thought of by everybody. The remains arrived here Thursday and will be buried from the colored Methodist church in the colored cemetery this afternoon. The funeral will be under the direction of the colored I. O. O. F. lodge of which he was one of the most influential members, having filled all the chairs.

Tie Vote.

Complete returns received Wednesday by the Kenton county Board of Elections show that both Judge William McD. Shaw, Republican, and Frank M. Tracey Democrat, have received the same number of votes for Judge of the Circuit Court of Kenton county. Each man received 7,153 votes. The leaders of both sides are still contending that there can be no contest and that their man has won. Both sides say that the official count, which will be made tomorrow, will show that their man "got there first."

Peary Given Gold Medal.

Commander Robert E. Peary was Wednesday voted a gold medal by the National Geographical Society for having reached the North Pole. The board of managers of the society at a meeting accepted unanimously the report of its subcommittee of scientists, who had examined the explorer's records and proofs, and found them to be corroborative of his claim that he had reached the pole.

RELIGIOUS.

—The C. W. B. M. will hold its regular meeting today, Nov. 5, at 2:45 p. m. at the parlors of the Christian church.

—Rev. Dr. B. M. Shive, of the Second Presbyterian church, and Rev. Sanders, of the Millersburg Presbyterian church will exchange pulpits Sunday morning.

—Elder Clarke, of Mt. Sterling, will fill Elder Carey E. Morgan's pulpit at Christian Church Sunday. Brother Morgan is holding interesting meeting for Elder Clarke at Mt. Sterling.

MATRIMONIAL.

—Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Duke, of Mason county, announce the engagement of their daughter, Rebecca Summerville, to Mr. James Brooks Woodford, of Bourbon county. The bride-to-be is one of Mason's most popular young society women and has often attended social functions in Bourbon. The prospective bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Woodford.

—Miss Lula R. Myers and Mr. Jesse G. Fuller, both of this city, were united in marriage in Cincinnati on Thursday morning, Oct. 28, by the Rev. Grevaize Boughton, pastor of Wesley Chapel Methodist Episcopal church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Andrew J. Myers, of this city.

DEATHS.

—Elder C. W. Dick died at his home in Lexington yesterday morning after a lingering illness. Elder Dick was pastor of the North Middletown Christian church for nine years, having retired from that charge about one year ago on account of failing health. He was much beloved by the people of that community and had host of admirers and friends throughout Bourbon county. He is survived by his wife and two children, two sons and one daughter. His remains will be taken to North Middletown, where the funeral services will be held in his old church which he had so faithfully served, on Saturday, at 11 a. m. Elders Roger Clark of Maysville, and Carey E. Morgan, of Paris, will conduct the funeral services. Burial in North Middletown cemetery.

Want Murphy's Scalp.

Following the failure of Tammany to elect any of its ticket except Judge Gaynor, rumors of a reorganization of the Democratic party in New York were circulated. Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, denied that he intended to give up his leadership.

A New Disease.

Almost completely baffled as yet by one of the most mysterious diseases with which it was ever confronted and already which has assumed alarming proportions in this country, especially in the South, medical scientists began at Columbia, S. C., to grapple with "pellagra," concerning which medical authorities know but little.
